CANADIAN-WIMBLEDON TEAM.—This Team had won still more laurels en route to Wimbledon. The latest intelligence concerning their movements which our Canadian exchanges supply is dated "Altcar Range, near Liverpool, July 6th." The wing of the Team which had been starting at north of the Tweed had just returned in good spirits, having carried off prizes to the value of £100 at the Irvine meeting, where the competition is said to be more severe than at Wimbledon. On the 5th the Team finished a match with the Liverpool Rifle Brigade for a Guinea Cup to become the property of the man making the highest score of the winning team, and the losing team to pay for the dinner for the whole. The firing was conducted during a violent gale and resulted in a victory for the Canadians, and the cup was won by Private J. Mason of the 14th battalion, Hamilton. The field officers of the Liverpool Volunteers entertained the Canadian Team at a banquet at the Royal, which was a grand success. The Canadians speak in the highest terms of the kind attentions met with everywhere since they arrived in Motherland. They are not permitted to pay their own bills for almost anything and nearly the whole of the Snider ammunition they used in practice during their stay at Liverpool—amounting to about 8000 rounds—was presented to them by the various corps in town. The Team were to start for Wimbledon on the 7th and were in excellent health and spirits.

No REFORMATION POSSIBLE.—We have given up all hope of ever reforming the Standard-bearer. Scarcity and untruth seems to be the man's only food and stock-in-trade. Shut him off from his daily pabulum of abuse and lies and he would die in a week. The best cure for a mad dog is said to be to cut his tail off close behind his ears; so, the best cure for the Standard-bearer's rabidity would be to "cut him dead" on every occasion—take no notice of him or his blackguardism. A few weeks ago he indulged in the foulest abuse of Lieut Governor Trutch and Dr. Helmecken. As soon as Mr Trutch was appointed Lieut Governor the attacks on both ceased. He [the Standard-bearer] is "on the make." He sighs for the "pépole" which are so necessary to fill his rapidly-depleting purse and to reward his needy and needy followers. Pending the arrival of the Lieut Governor, he is keeping his hand in by abusing Mr Nathan—a gentleman who showed more real independence and offered more good in one session of the Legislature than DeCosmos did in a dozen. Let him go on. Nathan can survive it. But can DeCosmos?

THE EARLDOM OF ABERDEEN.—Mr McLaren, the Sheriff of Chancery at Edinburgh, has issued an interlocutor dated July 3, in the petition of the Right Hon John Campbell Gordon, Earl of Aberdeen, to be served next and lawful heir to his brother the deceased Earl. The Sheriff finds the facts stated in the petition proved and serves and declares in terms of his prayer. In a note appended to the interlocutor the Sheriff states that the identity of George H Osborne with the late Earl of Aberdeen is established by three distinct sources of evidence—viz, by photographs, by handwriting and by a comparison of various incidents of Osborne's life with those described in the Earl of Aberdeen's letters as happening to himself. Corroborative evidence the Sheriff further states, is furnished by articles traced to Osborne's possession which were found among his effects after his death. Osborne was drowned at sea in January, 1870, when serving as first mate on board the Hera of Boston, then on a voyage to Australia and China.

FROM THE EAST COAST.—The steamer Sir James Douglas arrived from Nanaimo and Comox yesterday at 5 o'clock p.m., bringing about 12 passengers and a small quantity of produce. Among the passengers were the Rev Mr Pollard, Miss Cowper, Mr Jerome, Mr Boreton, Mr Johnson, Mr Webster, a Sister of St Ann's and a Chinaman with a broken back....The Zephyr sailed from the quay on Wednesday. The Shooting Star is loading at the wharf. The Prince Alfred would complete her coaling last night and will be here to sail this evening.

VICTORIA DISTRICT.—Mr Wm Dalby, who will stand for the local Parliament for Victoria District, is one of the rising young business men of this Colony who have struggled over a mountain of difficulties to reach his present prosperous position. Like Mr Duck, who stands for the city, he will commend the confidence and votes of all who have a permanent interest in the colony or who wish to see its government honestly administered by honest men.

ACCIDENT AT NANAIMO.—On Thursday as a Chinaman, an employee of the Coal Company, was engaged in felling a tree, it fell upon him, crushing him to the earth and breaking his back, besides inflicting other injuries of a fatal character. He was attended by Dr Jones and brought down on the Sir James Douglas last evening.

BURGLARY.—Two Chinamen broke into a Chinawoman's house at 2 1/2 o'clock yesterday morning and stole therefrom money and valuable articles. They left behind, by way of compensation, two old hats and two old coats, by means of which they were tracked, identified and one of them arrested.

No DEFALCATION.—The Olympia Tribune pronounces the rumored defalcation in the Receiver's office untrue and says the Special Agent will report to the United States Government.

THE TIEBORN CASE.—The cross examination of the claimant in the Tieborn case was continued till the 7th July when it was concluded. Sergeant Ballantine opened the re-examination; and in the course of the afternoon requested Origin's three sisters to stand up in Court. The claimant then said it was only the second time he had seen them. His evidence was closed on the 8th.

A PLEASANT TIME.—The St Andrews' Church Sabbath School picnic, held at Medana's Grove yesterday, was a very pleasant and successful affair. The weather was most propitious and the children enjoyed the good things and sports provided for them to their hearts' content.

TO LAY THE CABLE.—This morning the Government steamer Sir James Douglas, with a gang of eight men, will tow the cable across from Esquimalt to Rosario Straits, where the Superintendent will lay the new cable today.

A RETURNED OMINECAN sings a most doleful song of the Germanen Creek mines, to the Paget Sound papers. He went in when the claims were covered with snow and came out when they were under water. His name is Smith.

IN BAD LUCK.—The British people no sooner rejoice at the fortunate escape of the noble Agincourt, than fresh alarm is caused by the intelligence that the ironclad Warrior is ashore near Leghorn, where an American frigate shares her peril.

THE failure of the mail to reach Cariboo last week has created much dissatisfaction at Barkerville. The cause of delay is at present unknown but there must have been some carelessness and negligence at the way offices.

COUNTY COURT.—The Lister and Larkin case ended yesterday by the plaintiff being nonsuited without costs. In the case of Wier vs Bishop judgment was given for plaintiff for $10 with costs.

THEFT.—Ab Hovey, charged by Ab Fou with stealing goods the value of $12, was yesterday before the Police Court and remanded till Monday.

THE Sparrowhawk sailed from San Francisco on Thursday at 12 noon. A telegram from one of the officers states that Sparrowhawk will require seven days to reach here.

POSTAL RATES.—The colonial rates of postage are still demanded and paid at the P.O. Office. In some instances the amount is paid under protest, which is quite proper.

The bark Gem of the Ocean and the bark Ducos are on the way from San Francisco to load with lumber at Moody's Mills for foreign ports.

THE FAWN.—H.M.S. Fawn, Commander Leavitt, will sail for Callao to-morrow morning and will be absent many months.

THE propeller California will load with stone at Bellingham Bay and sail from Port Townsend for Portland on Tuesday next.

THE steamer North Pacific, for Puget Sound sailed yesterday morning.

THE U.S.S. Saranac sailed from Port Townsend for Astoria on Thursday morning.

THE steamship Prince Alfred will sail at 6 this evening for San Francisco.

Permit me to state, Sir, that no claim of any description has been made by me against the estate.

Playing with Death.

The San Joaquin Valley Argus, of July 9th, relates the following startling incident:

One night last week, —Haskell, one of the new settlers on Dry Creek, a short time after retiring for the night, heard a setting hen making a noise, as if disturbed by some wild animal, upon which he went to the coop to see what was the matter. The moon was shining brightly, enabling him to see any objects that were uncovered, and perceiving nothing that he thought would cause the hen to make such a noise he ran his hand in the coop and felt under the hen and hatching chickens to find out what was the matter, when he grasped in his fingers a huge rattlesnake. He threw down the reptile and called to his wife, when the snake ran back into the coop and coiled himself around the hen and her brood, continuing his repast upon young chickens. The lady learning the state of affairs, returned to the house, and soon returned with the fire-shovel and tongs, with which weapons the snake was soon dispatched and drawn from the coop. When killed the snake still had a chicken in its mouth, which he had not been able to swallow, which accounts for his not biting the man while being drawn out of the coop by Haskell with his hand. The snake is represented to have been about three and a half in length, and an extraordinarily large one.

THOUSANDS OF ROSY LIPS

Attent the many virtues of the genuine Murray and Larman's Florida Water. Matchless as a perfume, it is equally matchless as a cosmetic, alling the irritation of the skin, relieving headache preventing faintness, and when diluted the best of tooth waters. Truly it is the most valuable all floral waters.

There are worthless counterfeits abroad. Always ask for the Florida Water prepared by the sole proprietors, Lanman & Kemp, New York.

Dominion Mail Summary.

Our Canadian exchanges are to the 20th ult, from which we compile the following summary:—

The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Telegraph, under date 18th July, has the following:—A gentleman from England who has been connected with several important railway enterprises has been to Ottawa with a view of making arrangements to bring over a number of railway navies to help to build the International and Pacific railways and to settle in the country. The Times editorially criticizes Mr Macdougall's letter to the electors of Lanark in favor of the treaty, and shows that its premises are incorrect. It denounces that gentleman's policy of neutralizing the St Lawrence, and contends that Canada must hold the sovereignty of that river for all time to come. Mr Sandford Fleming is so busy with the Intercolonial Railway that he will not be able to go to British Columbia at present as originally proposed.

An occurrence highly discreditable to the Quebec Volunteers is recorded at Point Levi, opposite the city of Quebec, and has given rise to considerable excitement and newspaper discussion. It appears that a Scrip-ture Reader of the name of Murfrees, while visiting the Volunteer camps at that place, was assaulted in the most unprovoked and cowardly manner. The authorities had promised a thorough investigation into the matter.

The iron mines of Lake Superior yielded last year 888,471 tons, the larger portion of which was shipped to Cleveland. This interest requires the service of a whole fleet of lake vessels during the season of navigation, and is rapidly increasing. As at Quebec, so as at St Helena's Island—the last symbols of British sovereignty in the shape of old cannon are being sold to Americans for casting purposes. 900 tons of cannon metal were forwarded to Philadelphia the other day.

A Halifax correspondent of the 18th says. "The Chronicle of this morning has a semi-official declaration that the local Government does not intend to join the New Brunswick Government against the Washington Treaty. The talk is that the clause as to the fisheries is popular amongst the fishing population of the Province, and opposition to the Treaty is not found a political game, hence the opposition of the Government organs is now as mild as possible."

A murder of a most shocking character had been committed near Thorndale, Ontario. Two men entered the house of George Campbell, a quiet and most inoffensive farmer, during the night, demanding his money, one of them at the same time aiming a pistol at his head. Campbell, awaking, knocked the pistol aside, closed with his antagonist, calling upon his wife to bring him the axe. The axe was brought but only to serve the hellish purposes of the cowardly thieves. Poor Campbell was left dead on the floor of his house, almost hacked in pieces. A man named Davis was under arrest and the utmost efforts were being made to gain a clue to the perpetrators of one of the most brutal murders on record.

A Halifax correspondent says, A Digby lady is sending to the Queen a beautifully worked mat made from old clothes. Gov. Doyle will forward it.

It was rumored that the Honorable Mr McGreevy will be appointed to the Senate in place of the late Mr Duchesnay.

Mr Blanchette was spoken of as the next Speaker of the Quebec Assembly. The Opposition want Mr July to become a candidate.

The Ottawa Citizen of the 18th says. "Hon Mr Langevin, yesterday, laid the corner stone of the new Post Office, in Quebec, and afterwards left for Ottawa. He will be here today, and will probably depart ere the week closes on his official mission to Manitoba and British Columbia. Hon Mr Aikins will accompany him to the former Province.

Lieutenant Governor Howland, of Ontario, was about to proceed to Nova Scotia, upon the invitation of Sir C Hastings Doyle.

M Lovite Theisault, one of the representatives of Victoria in the Local Assembly, has been appointed a member of the New Brunswick Government.

European Mail Summary.

(DATE TO SEP JULY.)

Her Majesty has conferred the O.B. on Mr Mallet, in recognition of recent services in Paris. A meeting of the Liberal party was held at the Treasury to consider the policy to be pursued with regard to the Ballot Bill. In the House of Commons on the 4th the motion for a select committee to inquire into the claims of the Nawab Nazim was rejected. On the 5th the second reading of the Church Rates (Scotland) Abolition Bill was carried by 121 to 76, but left in the Lord Advocate's hands. The London School Board have appointed Mr E R Robson their architect at a salary of £500 a year. At a dinner given at the Mansion House by the Lord Mayor to the Bishops and clergy of London the Archbishop of Armagh spoke hopefully of the prospects of the Irish Church. The 107th anniversary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts was celebrated on the 5th in St Paul's. A Waverly Costume Ball was held in Willie's Rooms to raise a fund for the completion of the Scott Monument at Edinburgh. At Edinburgh the Sheriff of Chancery has found that the death of the late Earl of Aberdeen has been proved. A terrible murder of an unusual kind in Ireland was perpetrated at Newton-Stewart, near Omagh, county Tyrone. Mr Glass, cashier of the Northern Bank, a young man 25 years of age, highly respected in the locality, was found about 4 o'clock in the afternoon lying behind his desk, quite dead and with such marks of violence upon him as left no doubt that he fell by the hand of an assassin. The last customer in the bank was observed to leave about 3 o'clock and nothing unusual was noticed until about an hour afterwards when the servant, looking through the window to see what o'clock it was, discovered Mr Glass lying dead in a pool of blood. The back of his skull was fractured by some heavy instrument and a paper file was found sticking into the brain, having penetrated through the ear. This was probably owing to his having fallen on the file when he received the deadly blow. There were ten wounds on the head any one of which would have killed him. A sum of about £1500 is missing. A quantity of gold was left behind, though the notes were taken. The event recalls the circumstances of the murder of Mr Little, the cashier of the Midland Railway, who was murdered in a similar way at his desk in his office at the Broadstone terminus in Dublin. A sub-inspector of police named Montgomery is suspected.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Eastern States.

New York, Aug 3.—The Tribune's correspondent says the accounts of the Controllers are not to be distributed to-day, for publication although they are printed. It is said they are to be kept back till after the first of the meetings which are called for the purpose of investigating alleged swindles and corruptions of Tammany. Two calls for public meetings have been issued and one is denounced by the other as a fraud, designed to divert attention and to divide the forces of those who are disposed to bring public servants to a proper account of their stewardship in matters of expending public money. What is claimed by the Times and Tribune as a genuine call is published this morning and contains among other names those of Moses Taylor, Marshall O Roberts, John Jacobs Astor, Aug Belmont & Co, Geo Opyne & Co, and the majority of the best business names in the city.

According to the late census of New York City, which has been prepared at Census Office at Washington, the totals are as follows: Native votes 173,420. Voters of foreign birth 113,266. Of the latter 55,447 are Irish, 41,752 are German, and 16,068 of other nationalities. Total voting population of the city is 184,607. A Washington special says there is no authoritative announcement of the intention of the President to appoint Charles Francis Adams agent of our Government at the Geneva Conference, but those who are best informed express no doubt but that such a decision was made on Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, Aug 3.—By appended syllabus of the decision of the Secretary of the Interior which was rendered to-day in McGarrahan's claim, it will be seen that both claims of McGarrahan and the New Idea Company are rejected and the property virtually reverts to the United States. This is understood to be the final disposition of the case unless the New Idea Company may be allowed to go on and perfect proof as to so much of property claimed as they may be rightfully entitled to under the existing law touching mineral lands.

The testimony of W D Vanderbilt before the Government Inspector, in regard to the Westfield disaster, showed that there was a defect in the inside casing of the boiler, which evidently existed long time before the explosion. This flaw could not have been detected by any inspector.

CINCINNATI, Aug 2.—At a meeting of Germans, held to-night, to oppose the present movement for the repeal of Sunday laws, the attendance was large, and enthusiastic addresses were delivered in German by prominent German ministers and others. A resolution was passed strongly opposing any repeal of Sunday laws which are declared wise and beneficial, and asserting that Germans who desire their abrogation do not represent the real German element. It also declares that they will not vote for any candidate who is in favor of the repeal of Sunday laws.

He passed regret at her seclusion, but declared that she was anxious to resume her public duties as rapidly as her health would permit.

WASHINGTON, Aug 3.—The information received at the Internal Revenue Office shows that the grain distillation in California will be short this season owing to the diminution of the wheat crops. That State is now supplied with high wines, principally from Illinois, Iowa and Nebraska. New York, Aug 3.—The Government investigation of the explosion at Westfield was continued to-day. Robinson, colored engineer, testified that he had been engineer nearly 15 years but could not explain the difference between high and low pressure boats except that one used steam at high pressure and the other at low pressure. He defined vacuum to be foul air; knew the atmosphere exerted pressure but did not know how much. Never read a scientific book. Could not read writing, and print but very little. Was obliged to obtain assistance to ascertain the amount of steam the boiler certificate permitted. Brasted, Superintendent of Ferry Line, testified that he had the utmost confidence in Robinson; believed him to be sober at the time of the accident; often threatened to discharge him for carrying over 270 lbs of steam; believed if the engineer had only 200 lbs the boiler would not have exploded, still he had no idea that he had over 200 lbs. His confidence in the engineer was unshaken in spite of the accident. The names of 91 dead victims of the explosion were published with those of 7 others missing, who are supposed to be dead. At least 4 more wounded will die.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

Eastern States.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—It has come to the knowledge of the Secretary of the Treasury that extensive practice has been going on along the Canadian frontier by persons engaged in shipping foreign goods on foreign vessels to be re-shipped to ports in the United States. This custom is in violation of law, and subjects vessels engaged to forfeiture of their cargo and payment of a tonnage duty of 50 cents per ton on her measurement. Collectors, however, are in doubt respecting the penalty, and in many cases, in order to collect tonnage duty, have refused to admit goods, holding the consignees of ships for payment of tonnage duty. Secretary Boutwell has therefore issued instructions that penal tonnage imposed on vessels is not a charge of goods apparently liable to forfeiture so far as to require prepayment of that tax before the entry of goods.

A PRUDENT PARISIEN.—The Paris Figaro gives the following as an exact copy of a letter left by a resident in the Rue St Apolline for his porters, on the occasion of his quitting on the day when the attempt was made to remove the cannon from Montmartre:—"My dear Madame Dupont,—On mature consideration, I would prefer, having explained them, to leave you instructions in writing as to your conduct in any event which may occur during my absence. In the first place you will yourself keep the key of the collar which contains wine and wood and that of my apartments. In a dining-room you will find three rolls upon the table, numbered 1, 2, and 3. If the mob come and make a barricade in the Rue St Apolline, near the house, you will instantly go to my rooms, open the roll No 1, and taken out the red flag contained therein you will fasten it to the stick which I myself have tied to the balcony; there are hooks in the stuff you will have only to fasten them on. If the mob threaten my apartments you will tell that I am well known as a friend of the people, and that I offer them brandy to drink my health and wood to make a fire at night in the barriade. If the barricade is taken by the French you will hasten to take away the red flag and instantly replace it by the flag No 2, which is tricolor; you will offer wine to the soldiers, and give them wood if they bivouac in the quarter. If the Prussians meddle in the matter you will hide Nos 1 and 2, and look on No 3, which is a Prussian flag. You will give champagne and wood. I think I need say no more, and I salute you.—Signed L D.
